

GOLDSOLL INQUIRY
SUDDENLY HALTED

Cablegram From Paris Explains Probe of War Motors Buying Is Judicial.

$2,500,000 IN PROFITS?

French Consul-General Liebert Declines to Discuss New Turn in Case.

Investigation by representatives of the French Government into the activities of Frank J. Goldsoll, against whom proceedings have been instituted by the military authorities of that country, was suddenly brought to a halt yesterday.

Capt. Andre Tardieu, French High Commissioner to the United States, it is understood, advised Consul-General Gaston Liebert in this city that the proceedings which were brought to inquiry into the manner in which Mr. Goldsoll is said to have obtained commissions from American houses on purchases of automobiles for France was purely judicial and did not concern the French officials in this country.

Mr. Goldsoll, who has an expensive suite at the Hotel Vanderbilt, had a long typewritten statement ready to make public when he was advised by his counsel, John R. Stanchfield, to keep silent. When seen in the hotel by a Sun reporter, Mr. Goldsoll declared he had just returned from Battle Creek, Mich., with his wife and was dumfounded at the report that an inquiry had been started in France concerning his work here for that Government.

"The charges are absurd," he said. "I had prepared a statement for the newspapers, but Mr. Stanchfield, who is a close friend of mine, advised me not to issue it."

Mr. Goldsoll denied he had been unduly extravagant or a "Broadway spendthrift," as he was described in the first report concerning him.

"I shall certainly return to France if I am wanted," he said.

When Mr. Stanchfield was asked why he had advised Mr. Goldsoll not to speak he said:

"I do not consider that Mr. Goldsoll is called upon to make any explanation for anything he has done. Neither do I consider that he has been charged with anything. As I understand it the French military authorities have simply started some sort of an inquiry. There is no charge of any character in that. Therefore I have advised Mr. Goldsoll not to say anything at the present time."

Consul Liebert early in the day announced that later on he would have a lot to say concerning Mr. Goldsoll. At his house, 129 East Sixty-seventh street, last night he refused to see any editors and sent out word that he had nothing to say. Then it was learned that his mouth had been closed by his superior in Paris.

It is highly probable that nothing will come of the inquiry into Mr. Goldsoll's work here as it is said that he has done nothing for which he can be called to account. It was reported from France that inquiries are also being made into the manner of his discharge from the French army. Mr. Goldsoll was sent to the United States in 1915 officially commissioned to buy automobiles for France and he said to have realized $2,500,000 up to the present time in commissions obtained from American manufacturers. Of this amount he is said to have put $2,000,000 in Liebert's hands.

The report that Mr. Goldsoll had been in the habit of giving expensive dinners and living a high life could not be verified. In fact it was said by several of his acquaintances that he had always lived moderately for a man of his means and was at all times accompanied by Mrs. Goldsoll.

POTTERIES MAY BE CLOSED.

Their Products and Glassware Listed as Non-essential.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 1.—Pottery and glass manufacturers in eastern Ohio, northern West Virginia and western Pennsylvania were today notified that their products had been listed as non-essential by the Government, and many manufacturers took this to mean their plants would be closed for lack of transportation facilities and fuel.

A meeting of all the glass associations was immediately called for Pittsburgh next Tuesday, and Marcus Aaron, president of the United States Pottery Association, notified its members to assemble in Washington on the same day to go over the situation.

JEWISH WELFARE WORKERS WANTED

Col. Cutler Appeals for Men of Own Faith to Serve Fighters.

MONEY SEEMS CERTAIN

Fifty Thousand Hebrews in Uniform, According to Board's Figures.

Col. Harry Cutler, chairman of the Jewish Board for Welfare Work in the United States Army and Navy, which has undertaken, with the leadership of Jacob H. Schiff, to raise $1,000,000 during the weeks from December 3 to 15, has issued a striking appeal to young men of Jewish faith to volunteer as workers for the board at the various cantonments and at the front with American troops.

There seems little doubt that the sum required to provide the various camps where the 50,000 Jewish soldiers are distributed with facilities for carrying on the welfare work will be obtained. Difficultly has been experienced in procuring suitable workers. Col. Cutler in the appeal called to the young Jewish men of the nation not included in the draft says:

"The time has come for every Jewish man not called to the colors either for reasons of slight physical disability or because he is below or above the draft age and therefore exempted to do his part in assisting the Government in such way as he may be of the most use."

Liberal Salary Offered.

"A very important work confronts the men of our faith in the effort being made by the Jewish Board for Welfare Work concerning the moral, physical and spiritual well being of the fifty thousand Jewish soldiers who have volunteered for service with the United States forces or who have been included in the draft. We require a large number of workers of Jewish faith to represent the Welfare Board at the various cantonments and at the front. We are prepared to pay for this service from $50 to $100 a month in addition to legitimate expenses, and to provide uniforms."

"It is essential that the men be not of military draft age, that they be of the highest character and that they be suited to the important duties they will have to perform both by temperament and training. Just what salary will be paid to each individual will depend upon his previous experience. We prefer men from 22 to 35 years of age but can use men from 19 to 21. Men not accepted for army service because of slight physical disability which does not incapacitate them or hamper their usefulness in this work also will be accepted."

Need Men of Own Faith.

"The praise accorded to the workers who are engaged in similar work for non-Jewish welfare agencies by the Government authorities, indicates how essential to the welfare of our soldiers it is. It is even more important that the Jewish soldiers have the service of Jewish men who understand them and their needs and who will be able to supply successfully these needs, encourage the men, arrange that they may observe the Jewish faith and permit the multitude of duties required in the interests of the well being of the soldiers when they shall serve."

"I do not think any higher patriotic duty or any higher duty to Jewry can be conceived than this work for those men suited to it and who can be accepted."

"The Jewish Board for Welfare Work hopes that this appeal will bring hundreds of responses from which it will be able to select the men best fitted. It is requested that applications be sent to the Jewish Board for Welfare Work in the United States Army and Navy, 21 Union Square, West, New York city."
